Grade 7	Bull Run / Gettysburg prep Lesson 12
Teacher Notes	➢ Depending on the time, Bull Run can be staged as a Reader's Theater. If this option is selected, students need to be prepped ahead of time and given an opportunity to practice. ➢ Other options: o Read along with audio version o Have students read aloud by persona ➢ Vocabulary quiz to be given as necessary
Goal	1. Students will read aloud / perform a Reader's Theater of Bull Run, a fictionalized account of the Battle of Bull Run.
Objective	1. Students will role play parts 2. Students will synthesize prior knowledge from research to events and characters in the novel.
Standards	NCSS Standard I / D – Culture Standard III / I – People, Places & Environment Standard IV / F & G – Individual Development & Identity IRA/NCTE Standard 1,3, 4, 11 & 12
Materials	1. one copy of Bull Run by Paul Fleischman for each student 2. supplemental materials as noted in Lesson Plan 10
Definitions	See wiki for definitions
Guiding Questions
Introduction	1. Assess student impressions about book by asking for feedback. 2. Remind students to read dramatically, clearly and with feeling, if doing as a classroom read-aloud.
Lesson / Activities	1. Begin novel, pausing as needed.
Conclusion	1. Read aloud will continue in each class until the novel is concluded.
	Continued p. 2

Assignment Assessment	Assignment: 1. Blog posting as needed Assessment: 1. Assess blog as Meets Expectations if posted by due date.
Evaluation	